COLOR OF THE MOMENT

Warm Red Lips

Is it a coincidence that thermometers and makeup artists measure heat in red? We think not. Right now, the warmest reds have a touch of brown, such as Shiseido The Makeup Perfect Rouge in Dragon (above right) and Shu Uemura Rouge Unlimited in BR 738M. "Brown-based reds are more flattering than blue-based shades, which can bring out redness in your skin," says makeup artist Dick Page. To keep them from looking too flat, though, he suggests a topcoat of clear gloss. —JESSICA PRINCE
